

The Good Neighbors Graduate Scholarship allows eligible students to receive a discount equal to the difference between the graduate program's resident and nonresident tuition rate per semester credit hour. This discount is 20% of the difference between the graduate program's resident and nonresident tuition rate per semester credit hour. This discount is available to students who are eligible for the Good Neighbors Graduate Scholarship (li)-691 Tw receive a discount equal to the difference between the graduate program's resident and nonresident tuition rate per semester credit hour. This discount is available to students who are eligible for the Good Neighbors Graduate Scholarship.