OVERVIEW OF THE STUDENT ACCOUNTABILITY PROCESS

Please note that you are welcome to bring the support person of your choosing as an Advisor or to any student accountability meeting. You are required to complete an Advisor Form, available on our website, in order for an Advisor to participate in student accountability proceedings.

PREPARING FOR YOUR PRE-HEARING MEETING

If you receive Notice of Alleged Violation, it does not mean you have violated the Code of Community Standards or that you "did something wrong." It does mean your name was on a report and you have an opportunity to come and share what happened, if anything, before a decision is made.

Before your pre-hearing meeting, you should:

- x Carefully read your Notice of Alleged Violation
- x Mark your calendar with the date, time and location for your upcoming meeting
- x Respond to your Case Administrator if there is a scheduling conflict
- x Review the Code of Community Standards
- x Gather any information you may want to share with the Case Administrator at the initial meeting

THE PRE-HEARING MEETING

The pre-hearing meeting is an important step in the student accountability process. It allows you to make informed decisions in the resolution of the matter.

At the pre-hearing meeting, you will:

- x Have the student accountability process and alleged violations explained to you in detail
- x View the incident report or complaint and any other documentation related to the incident
- x Be given the opportunity to share preliminary information about the incident
- x Be given the opportunity to accept or contest responsibility for the alleged violation(s)
- x Be given an opportunity to indicate your preferred resolution method

If you accept responsibility for the alleged violation(s), the Case Administrator will discuss sanctions with you in an Administrative Conference. If you contest responsibility for the charges, you will be referred to a hearing.

THE HEARING

The purpose of the student conduct hearing is to determine responsibility. The hearing may be conducted by an administrator or a board, depending on the situation. You will have the opportunity to indicate your preference between the two forms of resolution. You also have the option to submit the following information to your Case Administrator before your hearing:

- x A list of witnesses (at least 2 business days in advance)
- x Documentation, including a written statement, witness statements and/or character statements (at least 2 business days in advance)
- x Name of your Advisor (at least 1 business day in advance, or 3 business days if Advisor is an attorney).

During the hearing, you will:

- x Have an opportunity to formally contest responsibility for the charges
- x Be given an opportunity to share information about the incident, including documentation and witnesses
- x Have the opportunity to share any thoughts you may have regarding the outcome of the meeting

PLEASE NOTE: In the sanctioning phase, if you are found responsible for a violation, the hearing authority will develop an Action Plan to resolve the incident – you are encouraged to share any thoughts you may have in regard to sanctioning with them for their consideration.

Responsibility for a violation of the Code of Community Standards; however, those students still have the right to appeal the sanctions. If a student appeals the decision, the resulting requirements are placed on hold and will not go
